

Couranto is Proud to Announce its 4th Certification as a Disability-Owned Business Enterprise

Fort Lauderdale, FL – Couranto is pleased to celebrate its fourth anniversary as a disability-owned business enterprise (DOBE), certified through Disability:IN's Supplier Diversity program.

The Disability:IN Supplier Diversity program certifies disability-owned business enterprises, including service-disabled and veteran disability-owned businesses, and connects them to organizations seeking to diversify their supply chains. A disability-owned business enterprise is a for profit business that is at least 51% owned, managed and controlled by a person with a disability.

On average, DOBEs employ people with disabilities at 6-7 times the rate of their non-DOBE peers, and DOBEs are nationally recognized by The Billion Dollar Roundtable.

"Certified DOBEs signal to companies: innovation, growth, and opportunity. The very experiences that have resulted in exclusion are what make DOBEs such important assets for corporate supplier diversity efforts. It is the strength of DOBEs, including Veteran-DOBEs and Service-Disabled Veteran DOBEs, that will bring the next age of innovation and sustainability" says Jill Houghton, President & CEO of Disability:IN.

"The table is abundant. We each need to pull up a chair and invite others unlike ourselves to join in." - Julie Sue Auslander, Couranto President, Chief Cultural Officer
